RESTAURANTS IN VENICE

ELEGANT:

QUADRI

Overlooking Piazza San Marco, Ristorante Quadri boasts one of Venice's most incredible views. The Alajmo family took over the restaurant in 2011, bringing the spirit and service of Le Calandre to the lagoon. The cuisine of Quadri is a contemporary expression of Italian and Venetian classics. The atmosphere in the dining room is elegant, yet relaxed, allowing guests to enjoy the allure of the most beautiful squares in the world.

The restaurant was awarded one Michelin star in 2012.

San Marco 120, Piazza S. Marco - Tel +39 041 5222105

Monday closed

HARRY'S BAR

Harry's Bar is a bar; it began as one. It offers in some ways the very essence of the café society that once played so large a part in the affairs of Europe.

In 2001, the Italian Ministry for Cultural Affairs declared it a national landmark. Harry's Bar is by now one of the world's most celebrated restaurants. The very name of the place evokes not simply a cuisine, or a kind of drink, but a frame of mind.

San Marco 1323, Calle Vallaresso - Tel +39 041 5285777

10.30-23.00 - Open every day

MET

RESTAURANTS IN GIUDECCA

HARRY'S DOLCI

Harry's Dolci offers a peaceful view of the Canal with outdoors tables facing the Giudecca Canal and is only five minutes' walk away from the hotel. People at the famed Harry's Bar have established their latest enclave far from the maddening crowds of Piazza San Marco in Giudecca. From the quayside windows and terrace of this chic place, you can watch seagoing vessels, from yachts to lagoon barges. White napery and uniformed waiters grace a modern room, where no one minds if you order only coffee and ice cream or perhaps a selection from the menu.

- Seasonal, open from April to the end of October.

Closed on Monday evening and Tuesday - Tel +39-041-5224844

DO MORI

Informal, typical Venetian fish and meat menus, as well as a good pizza.

Less than ten minutes' walk away from the hotel. In the summer, outside tables with Venice view on the Giudecca canal.

Tel +39-041-522.5452 – Open every day

VENICE ISLANDS

MURANO

DA LELE BUSA ALLA TORRE

A pretty square with trees and a well set the stage for Da Lele, a favorite of the Muranese and returning travelers. The restaurant stretches out on the campo, where you eat in the shade of large umbrellas.

Check the blackboard for such daily specials as antipasto Busa, with granseola and garusol (sea snails); bavette alla busara (flat spaghetti with a hot, spicy shrimp and tomato sauce); and baked rombo or branzino with potatoes. Homemade cookies are served with fragolino, a sweet, sparkling wine redolent of strawberries.

Murano, Campo San Stefano 3 - Tel +39 041 739.662

11.45 / 15.30 – Only Lunch, closed on Monday

BURANO

Trattoria AL GATTO NERO

In 1965, Ruggero Bovo took over the restaurant from its owners of the prior 19 years. The fish is top quality and fresh; all pastas and desserts are made in-house; the fritto misto (deep-fried fish) is outstanding for its lightness and variety of fish. Risotto de Gò (ghiozzo) is a cucina povera Burano standard that had almost disappeared from local menus until Anthony Bordain introduced it to travelers. No matter what you order though, you'll savor the pride Ruggero and his family have in their lagoon, their island, and the quality of their cucina (maybe even more so when enjoying it on the picturesque fondamenta).

Burano, Fondamenta Giudecca 88 - Tel +39 041 730.120

12 / 14.30 – 19 / 21.30 – Closed Sunday dinner and Monday

DA ROMANO

Opened by Romano Barbaro at the beginning of the 1900s, Da Romano soon became a meeting-place for important people, artists and literary and learned men who loved Burano and donated numerous works which today constitute a precious collection of contemporary art.

The restaurant, which has always been run by the Barbaro family, carries on the tradition with love and wisdom, retaining historical prestige and really welcoming hospitality.

At Romano's you can try typical dishes of lagoon cooking, including the famous, refined risottos and fish dishes. It counts among the approximately 180 Historical Restaurants of Italy.

Burano, Via Baldassarre Galuppi, 221 - Tel +39 041 730.030

12 / 15.30 – 18.30 / 20.45 – Closed Tuesday

MAZZORBO

VENISSA

On one side the vegetable gardens, the vineyard and the herbs, on the other the kitchen, where the raw ingredients are blended together and transformed with the greatest respect. Eight hands, four hearts, and a hundred stories complete a gastronomic tale that comes straight from the lagoon, the gardens, and the vineyard with old and new flavours that live in an intuition, a family memory, a meeting.

Mazzorbo, Fondamenta Santa Caterina - Tel +39 041 527.2281

12 / 14.30 – 19 / 21 – Closed Tuesday

TORCELLO

LOCANDA CIPRIANI

Simple, elegant furnishings combined with polite, attentive service and culinary delights based on reinterpretations of typical Venetian dishes which created the “Cipriani style” are the ingredients that have gone into the success of each and every one of Giuseppe Cipriani's restaurants.

The Locanda Cipriani, designed as a rustic maison d’hôte, receives its guests in a simple, almost austere environment dominated by wooden ceilings, terracotta bricks covering the walls decorated in Venetian bas-reliefs. Outside tables in summer in the beautiful garden and terrace.

The kitchen, headed up by chef Cristian Angiolin, not only serves dishes invented by the Cipriani family and now considered classics - such as 'carpaccio' of raw meat and John Dory 'alla Carlina' - but also offers a whole range of dishes featuring fish, vegetables, home-made pasta and rice.

- Seasonal Opening

Torcello, Piazza Santa Fosca 29 - Tel +39 041 730.150

12 / 15 – open for dinner only Friday and Saturday 19 / 21 – Closed Tuesday
